

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

Harpies

Were generally depicted as birds with the heads of maidens, faces pale with hunger and long claws on their hands. Roman and Byzantine writers detailed their ugliness. Pottery art depicting the harpies featured beautiful women with wings. Ovid described them as human-vultures.

Sirens

Are mythical creatures that appear in Greek and Roman mythology. They are often depicted as half-bird and half-woman, and are known for luring sailors to their deaths with their song.

Dragon

Mythical creature, reptile like which exist in many different mythologies include Nordic and Slavic. They can be different colours like: green, grey, blue, gold, green black etc. They usually covered by scales and spikes. They can breathe fire, ice, acid or other element. They size are various in different books and legends. Most of dragon have wings (for example in the books: The Witcher, Eragorn, but some can swim (Lochness monster).

CHARACTER DESCRIPTION

Gargoyle

Is derived from the French 'gargouille', meaning throat. Usually taking the form of a twisted face or a animal hybrid, these ominous stone icons are referred to in Greek mythology as 'chimera' – a creature with the head of a lion, the body of a goat, and the long tail of a snake.

Wizzard / Sorrcerer/ Warlock

Character class which is using magic as the source of power, attack, environment manipulation. Magic can inlcude; fire magic, water magic, ice/ frost maic, black magic, illusion magic, telekinesis magic. Wizzards usually wear robes instead of armour and staff or wand as the weapons.

Rogue

Character class is using bow and daggers, this class is based on agility. It is fast moving and squishy. It is have piercing ability while using range weapons (bow, crossbow, throwing daggers, throwing axes etc.).